How to arrive via public transport and by foot

Arrival via public transport:

Arrive by bus at the "Trade fair" station or by train at the "Bolzano South" station.

You can find all timetables at the following link: https://www.suedtirolmobil.info/en/

By foot:

Once you have arrived in Bozen/Bolzano South, you need to make a short walk to arrive at the Hydrogen Centre. Take Giotto street; at its very end, you'll see on the right hand a small bridge which will allow you to cross Kepler street. Then, follow the path until the beginning of the tunnel. Follow the tunnel until you arrive at the Firmano parking lot. Cross the parking, and ring at the gate behind the Hydrogen Refuelling Station.

Duration: about 15 minutes
